

Once upon a time, there was a lovely castle in Ireland. All the people there were happy. Two sisters were born in a mean family, Alice and Mona. Alice was a beautiful, rude, tall and short brown-haired woman. Mona was a nice gracious, blond-haired woman. She was the strongest knight. Alice had the power to torture people with her thought. One day, a little girl, Hanna, was attacked in the forest. Mona discovered her. Hanna told:

"I was tortured by a strange, tall woman."

- Mona thought: "this reminds me of someone". The sisters were separated for a long time. Then, Mona went to find Alice. A few hours later, she found a little house in the forest.

"Alice! Are you here?"

A woman appeared at the door.

Mona asked:

"This was you?"

- Mona!

- Why did you do this?

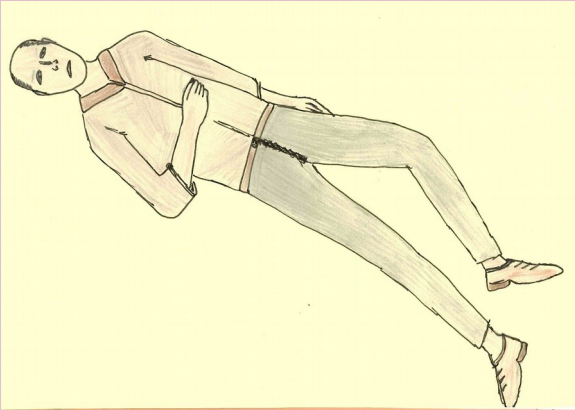

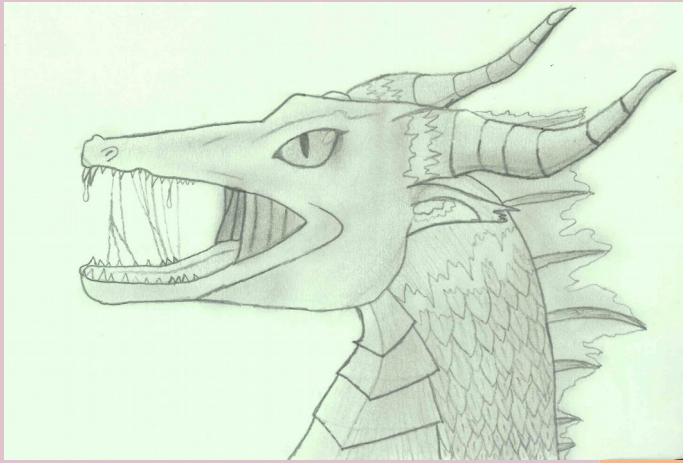

- I want to know more about our family.

- Oh sister they are dead now.

- You always were the favorite."

Mona hugged Alice. And they cried together.

Once upon a time, in a saddle, there was a princess. Her name was SUMMER; her grand-father was sick; her father was the king of the kingdom. His name was William. SUMMER had a chicken, Zeph and the most beautiful horse, Duty. William summer's father told her:

- SUMMER! ~~Your~~ grand-father is sick! You must go in the forest to look for a potion for him!
 - Ok dad! I will go to the forest!
- Summer, rode her horse and went to the forest.

A few days later, she took the potion and arrived in the kingdom. But, she saw the kingdom was on fire and she cried. Suddenly, Summer looked her grand-father.

- He was saved!
- Grand-father you did not die!
 - My dear, your chicken...
- Then SUMMER saw a dragon. He exclaimed:
- Hakaba! I am Zeph, the chicken-dragon and I am the king of the kingdom.
 - No Zeph! You are mean!
 - you must become the queen then you must beat ^{me} ~~me~~ I am going to beat you!

She used her magical powers and transformed him into a frog. She became the queen. In the end, she lived with her grand-father. They were happy!
